

CONGRATULATIONS Joseph Iriogbe

OFFICIAL IMTA INVITATION FOR THE NEW YORK CITY IMTA CONVENTION FROM THE 8th – 12th OF JULY 2024

It is my pleasure to congratulate you on your successful performance at The International ARTS Talent Showcase hosted at The Venue in Melrose Arch on the 5th – 6th of October 2023.

I thoroughly enjoyed the three days of non-stop performances with phenomenal Actors, Singers, Dancers and Models from the African Continent.

It is of great importance that we select only the very best for the IMTA Stage, offering our International panel of Agents, Record Labels, Casting Directors, Managers and Producers from Hollywood, Miami, New York City, Atlanta, Asia and Europe, only the best performers from all around the world. There are over 300 industry professionals from around the world that you will be networking and training with.

After a careful evaluation of each performance, it is my honor to extend an official invitation for you to perform IMTA 2024 in the United States of America. Take great pride in knowing that you are among the very best and have made it through when others have not. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity, where you can turn your dreams into a reality.

IMTA will bring you face to face with industry professionals during the convention, participants and parents will experience the highest level of International Industry exposure, International Scholarship opportunities for some of the most prestigious institutions in the world as well International Education leading up to your journey to IMTA thanks to the 33 and Me Talent Agency and IATS Team.

We look forward to sharing this International journey with you.
